

#sayYESS

Join DCIL/YESS in the third annual Embrace Your Disability Conference. YESS aims to educate the community about disability and empower youth age 14-24 to be extraordinary.

DCIL and YESS Mission Statement

The Dakota Center for Independent Living believes in empowering people with disabilities by minimizing barriers, advocating for inclusion and promoting consumer choice.

WE BELIEVE that diverse and fully inclusive organizations empower individuals, heal communities, and create a better world for all of us.

We Envision an inclusive society in which youth with disabilities have the access, support, and confidence to achieve their full potential. We believe that youth with disabilities who are educated, mentored, and empowered have a profoundly positive impact on their communities and the world.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Talking about emotions can be a challenge, but Ross Szabo's brutally honest, relatable and humorous approach puts audiences at ease as they confront a difficult topic. Ross uses tasteful humor and insights to help participants understand common mental health conditions and individual differences. He also covers warning signs that students can look for in their friends and peers, as well as resources that can provide guidance in these sensitive situations.

Mariah Kilbourne works full time for the University of Texas San Antonio (UTSA) Small Business Development Center (SBDC). In that role, she coordinates and organizes more than 200 annual training workshops and assists with special events. She has been honored to serve as Ms. Wheelchair Texas in 2012 & Ms. Wheelchair America in 2013. Mariah is a strong advocate for diversity and inclusion. She will be speaking from experience about inclusion, accessibility, and leadership.
